Operation Rice Bowl

In Tanzania, a country in East Africa, Catholic Relief Services supports a project for Orphans and Vulnerable Children in the Catholic Archdiocese of Songea. Here, millions of children have been orphaned by the AIDS epidemic. In addition to food, housing, and healthcare these young people also receive education opportunities, life skills training and counseling services.

Gifts to Operation Rice Bowl will help to support the lives of our brothers and sisters around the world. Your support is an expression of solidarity that makes a positive difference in our universe.
