Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound

THE EUCHARIST

We are updating our list of parishioners who take Communion to the homebound and those in nursing homes. Please call the office, at 747-7213, with your name and those of the people to whom you take Communion. In addition, let us know the approximate diameter of your pyx.

Fr. Jy, Pastor

PLEASE PRAY for ill members of our parish:

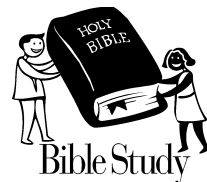

Mary Scorcio, Ned Conley, the Lewis Family, Mamie & Kent Johnson, Heather Trujillo, Therese Kallas, Rita Leland, Joe Feil, and Abby O'Keefe

Please continue your prayers for all those serving in our armed forces.

The green cards in the pews are available so that you may add a name to our prayer list.

Bible Group and Scripture Study

We will meet Tuesday, April 14th, at 7:00 pm in the Gathering Place. Be prepared by reading the scripture for the second Sunday of Easter. The book, At Home With the Word, which contains the Sunday readings, are available in the Parish Office, and cost $6.50. May you continue to pray, fast & give alms.

Joan Leeds, Director of Religious Education

ALL SAINTS

Praise God for the hope of the resurrection! Because He lives, we too shall live. That's the good news of Easter, that's the good news of Christ. Enjoy this season of celebration, renewal, and hope. From the students and staff of All Saints Catholic School.

Kathy Hicks, Principal

Companions in Care

"Love one another. Such as my love has been for you, so must your love be for each other."
(John 13:34)

Our St. Patrick's Liturgy and Luncheon was a celebration worthy of the great saint. This is mostly due to the joy and hope given to us through the gifts and loving service of Deacon Byrne, our own Irish Celebrant; Gracia Anderson, Hymn leader; Mrs. Travis, her Sixth Grade Students, and Mothers providing and serving lunch; Mr. Casey Tuckerman (with guitar) and Student singers entertaining us with lively music; and Mrs. Murray, coordinator. We thank you, and in the words of the Irish Blessing, "May God hold you in the hollow of His hand."

CONCERN

The monthly meeting will be Thursday, April 16th, at 10am in the Gathering Place. Please join us.
