A Shepherd's Heart

In the face of leaders who fail to shepherd God's people, Jeremiah proclaims that God will be their shepherd. God then, promises to raise up one who will shepherd them. This promised is fulfilled when Jesus comes; today we see him as the one who shepherds by teaching the crowd many things. From: Living the Word

DEACON ORDINATION

On Friday, August 10, at 7:00 p.m. Bishop Cupich will ordain eighteen men to the Order of Deacons for the Diocese of Spokane in a special Mass at Gonzaga University's McCarthy Center. The candidates have completed their four years of formation and now place themselves at the service of the local Church.

Bishop Cupich invites one and all to join in the celebration!

DIOCESAN CHOIR SET FOR ORDINATION

On Friday August 10, 7:00 p.m., at Gonzaga University's McCarthy Athletic Center Bishop Cupich will ordain to the Diaconate eighteen candidates from throughout the Diocese. Singers from all parishes are cordially invited to participate in the choir for this truly special event. Two rehearsals are set: July 28 and August 4 - as well as a warm-up sometime on the day of the ordination. Specific times and locations will be provided to volunteers. For those who live too far out of town to attend rehearsals, alternatives will be provided. To complete musical planning, the number of singers and voice distribution needs to be known. If you would like to participate, please send contact information and the voice part you sing to Jim Tevenan, music director for the Mass (jtevenan@dioceseofspokane.org). Or call him at St. Augustine Parish (Spokane) - 747-4421. Choir directors are also welcome to send along a list of participating singers. Let your voice be a part of a wonderful celebration! We hope to hear from you!

Come Celebrate With Us!

A reception will be held on Sunday, August 12th after the 10:30 am mass to welcome Dan Glatt as our newly ordained Deacon. He has been assigned to serve at Our Lady of Fatima. In addition, Dan will also be the Chairman of the Catholic Committee on Scouting. Come, join Dan, his family and relatives in recognition of this honor and his completion of the four years of study.

Reminder: When someone from the parish is hospitalized and would like a pastoral visit there, or while convalescing at home, please call the Parish Office to let us know. Also, please call the Parish Office with the names of those who are sick or homebound and would like to have the Eucharist brought to them. Phone: 747-7213

Garden for the Poor, UPDATE!

Some amazing improvements have taken place in the past couple of weeks. We have irrigation in the gardens, no more dragging hoses. Also, the next 80 feet of path way is about to have the paver bricks laid and that will take us back to the new green house. The green house assembly will begin in the next couple weeks, once we have the concrete forms in place. These great additions are only capable through the generosity of our parishioners. Thank you!

Wednesday Night in the Gardens continues to be a great community gathering for the whole parish. July 25th from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. will be the next gathering, please bring your own hand tools. Just a little time in the gardens will mean so much to the people that are fed at the House of Charity this fall. Dan Glatt, Youth Minister

Youth Conference

Thanks you for all the prayers of safe journey on our recent participation in ND Vision. It was an amazing week and we continue to be challenged as St. Ignatius said "Encourage the Storm" to look at the Exit sign as we leave Church to know that is where the real work begins. Preparations are underway for ND Vision 2013 Week 2 June 22 -30, 2013. Students 8th grade through 12th grade it is not early to get on the list.

FALL NEWSLETTER

From the EDITOR

Can you believe fall is almost here?? It is once again time to start thinking about another newsletter.

The Fall Newsletter will cover the months of September, October & November. All parish groups and committees are encouraged to submit an article.

Many times people may know that a group or committee exists, but they don't really know what you do. This is a wonderful chance to inform others about your group activities and invite them to join you. You can fax, email or drop your article off to the parish office. If you email your article, send it as a Word document, PDF, or Publisher file. If you have any questions, please call Meg or Cathy at 747-7213.

Fax: 747-7217 Email: olf@fatimaspoakne.com

Liturgical Ministers: Please call or email Meg with your availability. Email: megc@fatimaspoakne.com.

DEADLINE IS:

Wednesday, August 8th
