TIME AND TALENT SUNDAY

HOSPITALITY

The welcome that Jesus gives to strangers, longtime friends, the sick and the elderly, models for us the hospitality we strive for in our own parish community. The virtues of understanding and mercy easily furnish kindness to all. Christ Himself gives us clear examples of what it means to be hospitable. As we serve our community in ministry, we do so in the name of Christ.

On the weekend of September 17-18, we will have time after Mass for all to sign-up for the Liturgical Ministries, or if you would like to be trained and begin immediately, please call the office.

To all the Parishioners of Our Lady of Fatima, I thank you for the wonderful celebration last Sunday of my 40th Anniversary as a Priest. It truly was a blessing to be with you at Our Lady of Fatima. Thank you as well for the wonderful lunch and conversations after Mass. I truly appreciated the cards, best wishes and comments that you wrote me. As you know, I value the opportunity to celebrate the Eucharist with you. And especially I would like to thank Fr. Ty for all his friendship and support.

Blessings
Fr. Patrick

CATECHIST NEEDED!

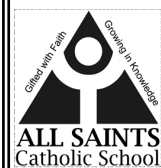

A catechist is needed for our young children. We meet Sunday mornings at 9am in the preschool building. If you are 14 years or older, please consider this ministry. Give me a call, 747 7213.

Kathy Hicks, Principal

The Ministry Institute

at Mater Dei

This year, The Ministry Institute (TMI) is offering TWO seminar series for your spiritual enrichment and education. Consider this as an investment of time for yourself – you're worth it!! Fr. Armand Nigro, SJ, professor emeritus from Gonzaga University, and beloved retreat master around the globe, will be presenting two seminars, the first Thursdays of October and November:

Thursday, October 6 – The Philosophy of God

Thursday, November 3 – The Philosophy of Man

We are also continuing our Second Saturday "Skills for Service" workshops. This year, our theme is "Seeing with the Eyes of the Heart: Recognizing God in Wisdom, Mysticism and Daily Life." Our first seminar is coming up quickly on September 10.

September 10 Wisdom in the Old Testament
Dr. Linda Schearing - Chant and Psalmody

October 8 Mysticism in the Life of St. Francis
Dr. John Downey - The Art of St. Francis

November 12 Theological Reflection
Sr. Mary Garvin - Spiritual Exercises for Daily Life

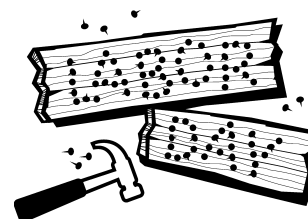

For a complete listing of seminars for the year, see the flyer in the lobby area of your church.

Seminars begin at 9:30am and include lunch, ending at 1:00pm. The price is $35 per workshop. Please look for further details in the Gathering Place. For more information, contact Shonna Bartlett, 313-5765 or bartletts@gonzaga.edu.

Catholic Cougs: Welcome to Pullman!

For students of WSU, new and returning, the academic year is about to begin. In just a week or two, Pullman's dorms, fraternities and apartments will be filling up with more than 20,000 Cougs, many of them Catholic Cougs! If you have a friend or family member on his or her way to WSU, encourage them to check out all that St Thomas More Catholic Student Center has to offer them throughout the year. We are located right on College Hill, just a half-block from campus. Call us at 509-332-6311 or check us out on the web at www.catholiccougs.org or follow us on Facebook: St Thomas More Catholic Student Center, WSU. And to all you new Catholic Cougs: WELCOME!
