

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

September 30, 2012 ♦ Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lord, help us recognize the working of your Spirit in our world. May we see your hand in anything done to liberate others from oppression and to bring peace and reconciliation. Never let us bring any of your little ones to harm. And give true contrition to those who have caused others harm. From: Living the Word

We invite you to come to our weekly Masses at each building. This a wonderful way to celebrate with the community. Masses are at 8:50 a.m. on Tuesday at Our Lady of Fatima. Please check your bulletin for any schedule changes due to special feast days. All School Masses are celebrated throughout the year. (All Saints Day, Giving Tree Mass, Catholic Schools' Week, Ash Wednesday, Marian Mass and the End of the Year). All School Masses alternate between St. Peter and Our Lady of Fatima. Along with our weekly Masses, the children celebrate the special seasons of the Church. During both the season of Advent and Lent, the children come together once a week as a building for a prayer service. We invite you to come pray with us.

Just a reminder: Fr. Kevin Codd will be here Wednesday, November 14, re-telling his adventure of "To the Field of Stars". You can find the book online at Amazon or at our local bookstore. Please remember that you do not need to read the book to enjoy the evening as Father is a great story teller.

Garden for the Poor

Our Garden for the Poor is beginning to wind down as fall takes over the gardens. We are thankful for the bounty that God has provided to the House of Charity. This was a year of growth with a new path, a new Green House and a new irrigation system. We are grateful to all who gave their time, talent, and treasure this past growing year. Next year we look to rebuild a couple of gardens and install some new planters and hanging baskets.

Deacon Dan Glatt, Youth Minister

Are you new to the Parish?
Have you filled out a registration form?
We would like to set a place for you!

We will be having our annual Welcome Dinner for all new parishioners in mid-October. The event is hosted by the Hospitality Ministry and Concern; an invitation will be sent to each family soon.

If you haven't yet registered, please fill out a Parish Census form (they are located in the Gathering Place near the doughnuts) and place it in the collection basket. Or you may also call the parish and have one mailed to your home or e-mailed to you. Thank you to all newcomers for taking the time to join our weekly celebrations and to complete your census form.
