

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 7, 2012

Our culture tends to emphasize rights over responsibilities in marriage and elsewhere.. Marriage requires both caritas (charity) and amor (love). But since the reign of God is not yet fully realized, our failures sometimes result in divorce. On the other hand, Jesus does something revolutionary in marriage relations and places husband and wife on equal footing in the relationship.

"...love for widows and orphans, prisoners, and the sick and needy of every kind, is as essential to her [Church] as the ministry of the sacraments and preaching of the Gospel. The Church cannot neglect the service of charity any more than she can neglect the Sacraments and the Word."

- Pope Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est

ALL SAINTS
Catholic School

Teachers at All Saints School spread the Good News in all that they say and do. Our faith permeates all curricular areas. Retreats, weekly masses, daily prayer at the beginning and at the end of the day, grace before meals, religion classes and service projects give our students opportunities to learn about our faith and to Live as Jesus did. Our Student Learning Expectations support this endeavor guiding the students in their classes and extracurricular activities.

The mission of Catholic Schools is fourfold – to celebrate and worship together; to be a faith community; to serve others; and, to learn and live the Gospel message. Here at All Saints we continue to live out this Mission.

Kathy Hicks, Principal

We would like to thank Mark, Aimee, Matthew and Sara for the lovely cards that they made for our parishioners on the prayer list.

We would also like to thank Kevin Smith for hauling the "clean green" to the transfer station.

Your thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated.

Garden for the Poor

Our final harvest has been taken to the House of Charity from the Garden for the Poor. Thank you to all who gave time this past season to tending to the gardens and for all the donations during our fall drive. Looking forward to next season with the new green house.
