

OUR LADY OF FATIMA
Thirtieth Sunday
in Ordinary Time
October 28, 2012

A Native American elder once described his own inner struggles in this manner:
 "Inside of me there are two dogs. One of the dogs is mean and evil. The other dog is good. The mean dog fights the good dog all the time."
 When asked which dog wins, he reflected for a moment and replied,
 "The one I feed the most."

The Social Ministries Committee will be collecting your gently used sleeping bags, blankets, coats, gloves, hats, toiletry items, and other clothing to help keep warm those living in the streets or in inadequate housing in the winter time. There will be collection boxes in the back of the church, or bring your items to the parish office during the week. If you need to have them picked up, please contact Mary Murcar, 448-7505. We will be collecting these items starting the weekend of Nov. 3/4, and Nov. 10/11. Join us in our mission to help those in our community, sharing the love of God with others.

"When a Catholic does not share a candidate's stand in favor of abortion and/or euthanasia, but votes for that candidate for other reasons...(it) can be permitted in the presence of proportionate reasons." - Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger (Benedict XVI) 2004.

A very special thank you to Jim Morlin, the Knights of Columbus and Joanie Reger for sprucing up and painting the fence along the parish office and school play ground. This is one of those tasks that often go unnoticed in our daily lives, but we noticed! Also, Jim, thank you for donating the paint!

Please remember in your prayers the families of James Haynes and Mike O'Brien, two long-time parishioners of OLF, who passed away recently. May their souls rest in peace with our eternal Redeemer.

BLOOD DRIVE

The Inland Northwest Blood Center will have their mobile unit at Our Lady of Fatima on Sunday, November 11 from 9:30 am to 1 pm. Please donate, if possible, to help our parishioners who are in need of blood. A sign up sheet is available in the Gathering Place. If you have any questions, please contact Vivian Wendt at 838-2607.

YOUTH MINISTRY

"I love those who love Me, and those who seek Me early and diligently shall find Me." (Proverbs 8:17)

Happy Birthday to the following students:
 Oct. 25, Jordan S. and Ryan B.
 Many blessings on your Birthday.

With great joy the Communion of Saints has two new "youth" saints, St. Kateri Tekakwitha and St. Pedro Calungsod. May their lives be an example for our youth.

Sunday, October 28: The Youth Group meets in the Youth Center from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. All students 7th grade through 12th grade are invited. This week's theme is Word of the Lord, Scripture in Your Everyday life. How do we use the scripture in our day to day encounters? Come share in some good treats and learn about our parish Youth Group.

Pumpkins are here! Come on out and get ready for October 31st. Thank you to all for your support of the pumpkin patch. Still many to pick from this weekend.

Christmas Greenery orders need to be in this weekend. If you need any greenery and did not place your order call Deacon Dan on Monday at the Parish Office.

Deacon Dan Glatt, Youth Minister

Honoring Our Veteran's

We would like to put a special insert in the bulletin on Veteran's day listing our veterans and their branch of service to honor those who have served our country. There is a sign-up sheet in the Gathering Place for that purpose. If you are a veteran, or a widow(er) of a veteran, please list the information on these sheets. Thank you.

KC Breakfast: Sunday, November 11 after masses Join us!

Religious Ed News

El Camino de Santiago – the way of St. James is the topic of a movie and a book. The movie THE WAY with Martin Sheen will be shown Wednesday, November 7 in the Parish Hall. The movie shows the way, the path on which the pilgrims walk. The book, TO THE FIELD OF STARS by Fr. Kevin Codd is a delightful account of his experience. Fr. Codd will be here Nov. 14. Come see, come listen.

Lector training is Saturday, November 10 at 10 am in the church. This training is necessary if you wish to be scheduled. Questions? Please call Joan, 747 7213.

Sunday religion class is in the Brides/Nursery room right off the Gathering Place in church at 9am. Karra, with the assistance of Carolyn and Richard, has prepared interesting, fun and formative material for children grades K through 6. COME JOIN US!

WANTED: SINGERS FOR ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS!

We could use some help from you folks in the community who can sing. We have started the Advent/Christmas music and have need of sopranos and basses. All are welcome. We rehearse in the sanctuary Monday nights from 7-9 pm. The choir sings at the 10:30 mass on Sunday - we arrive at 10:00 to review music.

Twilight Retreat for Tuesday, November 6: Special live radio broadcast:

"Time with the Bishop"
 Call with questions and comments during a live broadcast with Bishop Cupich. Noon-1 pm., Sacred Heart Radio, KTTO AM 970. Call 327-3695, or email questions : inlandregister@dioceseofspokane.org

Newsletter Postcards have been Mailed

Our next newsletter will be published in late November. All parish groups are asked to submit an article. The deadline for articles is Nov. 5.

Keep Christ in Christmas

The Fatima Knights of Columbus will have religious Christmas cards available in the Gathering Place beginning on November 4. Please help support our adopted seminarian, Alex Wilson, and other charitable works. If you prefer to shop in your home or office, please call Phil Brennan at 534-3996. "have cards... will travel ... anytime!"
